Detailed Instructions and Frequently Asked Questions

Important Information about Procedures for Opening a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents

What is this form?

To help the government fight financial crime, Federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners, Control Person and Natural Authorized Person of legal entity customers.

Who has to complete this form?

This form must be completed by the person with the intent to open an account or apply for credit on behalf of a legal entity with any of the following U.S. financial institutions: a bank or credit union; a broker or dealer in securities; a mutual fund; a futures commission merchant; or an introducing broker in commodities.

For the purposes of this form, a legal entity includes a corporation, limited liability company, or other entity that is created by a filing of a public document with a Secretary of State or similar office, a general partnership, and any similar business entity formed in the United States or a foreign country. Legal entity does not include sole proprietorships or natural persons opening accounts on their own behalf.

What information do I have to provide?

This form requires you to provide the name, address, date of birth and Social Security number (or passport number or other similar information, in the case of foreign persons), a copy of government issued identification (examples of acceptable ID types include unexpired U.S. Driver's License, unexpired State ID, unexpired Passport, unexpired Military ID) for the following individuals (i.e., the beneficial owners):

1. Each individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25% or more of the equity interests of the legal entity customer (e.g., each natural person that owns 25% or more of the shares of a corporation) or in some situations 10%; and
2. An individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity customer (e.g., a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer).
The number of individuals that satisfy this definition of "beneficial owner" may vary. Depending on the factual circumstances, up to ten individuals - but as few as zero - may need to be identified.)

When is 10% or more Beneficial Ownership Information Required?

The law requires a legal entity Customer disclose those individuals who have a minimum of 25% or more ownership interest in the Customer, a "Beneficial Owner". In certain instances, the Bank may require Beneficial Owner information be provided for individuals who have a minimum of 10% or more ownership interest in the Customer. This requirement is based upon many factors, such as a Customer operating in a high risk industry, such as a Money Services Business. The Bank will alert the Customer if the 10% or more threshold is required. Customers at their discretion may provide more Beneficial Owner(s) information than required.

Is identification of a Control Person required?

The Control Person is required for all non-exempt entities. Even if no Beneficial Owner meets the 25% or more (or 10% when required) ownership threshold, information about a Control Person must be provided. Charities, Non-Profit entities and Pooled Investment Vehicles advised by a non-exempt entity must also identify a Control Person.

Can the Control Person also be a Beneficial Owner/Natural Authorized Person?

Yes. The Control Person can be a Beneficial Owner and/or a Natural Authorized Person.

What law requires the information contained in this Form?

31 CFR §1010.230 - Beneficial ownership requirements for legal entity customers.

Who is a Senior Political Figure (SPF)?

A senior United States Official in state or federal government, including:

1. Executive Branch – president/governor, cabinet member, department or agency head;
2. Legislative Branch – member of congress/state legislature;
3. Judicial Branch – federal or state supreme or appeals court judge; or
4. Military – rank colonel or higher (captain or higher for Navy).
5. A senior official of a major political party (e.g. Chairman of the RNC)
6. A U.S. corporation, business, or other entity that has been formed by, or for the benefit of an SPF; or

A senior Foreign Political Figure, including:

1. Senior official in the executive, legislative, administrative, military or judicial branches of a foreign government (whether elected or not),
2. Senior official of a major foreign political party;
3. Senior executive of a foreign government-owned corporation, or a corporation, business, or other entity that has been formed by, or for the benefit of, a senior foreign political figure.

Who is a Politically Exposed Person (PEP)?

A Politically Exposed Person is an immediate family member of a Senior Political Figure, such as parents, siblings, spouse, and children; or a close associate of the SPF. A close associate is a person who is widely and publicly known to maintain an unusually close relationship with the SPF, and includes a person who is in a position to conduct substantial domestic and international financial transactions on behalf of the senior political figure.
